

Philosophy of Schools Association and
Institute for Ethics and Society

Present

Tom Wartenberg

Doing Philosophy with Frog and Toad

Saturday 20 May | 9.30am - 3pm

The University of Notre Dame Australia,
Broadway Site

The Philosophy in Schools Association of New South Wales in association with the Institute for Ethics and Society at the University of Notre Dame Australia presents a day of presentations and workshops.

Tom Wartenberg is an international authority on pre-college philosophy. He is President of the Philosophy Learning and Teaching Organization (PLATO) and author of Big Ideas for Little Kids and A Sneetch is a Sneetch and Other Philosophical Discoveries.

Presenters: Tom Wartenberg (President of PLATO) 'Art @ The Virtual Art Museum: Works of Art as Prompts for Philosophy Discussions'

Philip Cam (School of Humanities and Languages, University of New South Wales) 'Developing ethical understanding through class discussion'

Janine Timillero (Diverse Learning Coordinator, St Patrick's College, Strathfield)

Jennifer Edwards (Gifted and Talented Teacher, Christian Brothers' High School, Lewisham) 'Using the Community of Inquiry to develop higher order thinking in the classroom'

Dan Smith (Deputy Principal, Leichhardt Public School) 'Generating questions and driving philosophical discussion'

Cost: $60 (includes morning refreshments)

To register, please email: ies@nd.edu.au

The Philosophy in Schools
Association of New South Wales

